Description: / คำอธิบาย

Sisaket Rajabhat University was upgraded from “Sisaket Rajabhat Institute” which was established in 1997 on public land of Non Bak Ba, Pho Subdistrict, Mueang Sisaket District, Sisaket Province. It covers an area of approximately 525 rai, 2 ngan, and 32 square wa in the Sisaket Municipality. It is one of the 5 projects to establish additional Rajabhat Institutes in the first phase of the Office of the Council of Rajabhat Institutes under the Ministry of Education during the fiscal year 1997-1999 by the Cabinet resolution on April 29, 1997. The establishment of Sisaket Rajabhat Institute is subject to the following criteria for establishing new Rajabhat Institutes:

1. It is a province with a large population.
2. It is a province with a large number of students, especially students who have completed secondary education.
3. It is a province lacking higher education institutions.
4. It is a province with high potential to develop into a center of tourism and industry.
5. It is a province with land readiness for construction.
